A Natural Revolution

Located in Sheffield Beach, KwaZulu-Natal, all homes within Elaleni are designed around sustainability with a strong environmental conscience in a community where life is lived in harmony with nature, in an estate focused on family.

Elaleni encourages interaction with the natural environment and incorporates spaces, places, opportunities and facilities which foster family and community connection with state-of-the-art security. All homes are designed to be at least 50% off-the-grid, thereby aiding residents in taking control of their future and not only addressing resource scarcity but also making a positive difference to climate change.

Integrated into the Elaleni way of life, Elaleni Lifestyle Estate embodies the next evolution of modern sustainable estate living genuinely driven by living off the earth.
